

Adult Winter Reading Bingo

read a banned book	read a book that has the same title as a song	read a book in a different format than what you normally read	read a book everyone seems to have read but you	read while wearing your mask
read a book where the main character works at your current or dream job	make a recipe from a cookbook	read a book that you picked up but never finished	read a book set in multiple countries	choose a book based on the cover
read a book of poetry	read a book from a genre you've never read	Free	read a book that has won the Women's Prize for Fiction	read a book about do-overs or fresh starts start a new series	read a book suggested by someone else	read a book where the main character is a different race than you	read a book set mostly or entirely outdoors	read a book about a subject you are passionate about
read a book about a social justice issue	read the same book with a friend	read a book that was turned into a movie or show	watch that film adaptation ←	read a book by an author who shares your zodiac sign

Name:

Phone Number:

Bingo Rules:

You can choose to participate in One-Row Bingo OR Blackout Bingo.
Only one square per book. Please do not use one book to cover multiple spaces on your card.

- 1) The program will take place January 11 – February 20, 2021, and the prize drawing will take place on February 22.
- 2) There are two options for filling out your BINGO card. Choose either:
 - One Row BINGO: Complete one row on the board to be entered in the drawing for a $25 gift card to County Market.
 - Blackout BINGO: Complete all spaces to be entered in the drawing for the Prize Pack: A Day in Chatham which will feature $25 gift cards to Scoop Du Jour, Sangamo Brewing Co, and The Apple Barn.
- 3) When you are ready to turn your sheet in, please drop it off at the Library via curbside, and you're sheet will be entered into the prize drawing.

Questions? Give us a call at the Library at 217-483-2713

