

EMPLOYMENT PREVIEW

We are pleased that you are interested in employment with the Chatham Area Public Library .

Please allow us to preview what you can expect while working for the Library.

Public libraries are the center of knowledge where people of all ages, backgrounds, and beliefs come together in discovery and awareness.

Helping to make connections and community impact while working in a library can be one of the most interesting and satisfying jobs in the world! Many employees have told us that they did not fully understand what library employees did behind the scenes and were surprised to find that library work is hard work and it can be fast paced and even strenuous at times.

We require a welcoming attitude

We expect all patrons to be treated with dignity, respect, and an friendly attitude, at all times, and under all circumstances. We also expect employees to be alert and interested in helping patrons, providing information, and helping with selections upon request.

What can I expect when serving the Public at the Chatham Area Public Library?

Library work is more than reading books. It involves making sure that materials are available and easy for the patrons to find. It involves dusting, straightening, restocking and moving materials. Of course, this job may require that you are on your feet, lifting, and bending, as well as regular computer use.

Description of positions

Page (ages 16-College): Involves sorting and shelving Library materials and keeping the library organized. Shelving requires attention to detail and is repetitive. Pages also assist library circulation assistants.

Adult Services Assistant (adult and page-level position): Supervise the public service computers, assist patrons with basic computer problems/questions and answering basic reference and reader's advisory questions.

Library Circulation Assistant: Work directly with Library patron and complete a variety of duties involving Library cards and accounts, borrowing and returning Library material, shelving and other projects as assigned.

Specialists: Areas such as: Reference Librarian, Children's Coordinator, Technical Services Supervisor, Circulation Supervisor, Information Technology Supervisor, Bookkeeper, Custodian and Director.

Application Instructions

Please submit completed application forms in one of the following ways:

- Hand it in at the circulation desk
- Fax it to: 483-2361
